

Triangles have three sides. They also have three corners. The angles of the three corners must meet the condition shown in Equation 1:

$$\alpha + \beta + \gamma = 180^\circ \tag{1}$$

where α , β , and γ are the interior angles of the triangle.